STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

To obtain accurate and valid measures of educational progress, Twentynine Palms Junior High School offers students multiple opportunities to demonstrate mastery in each of the core subject areas. Multiple assessments of student achievement are analyzed to monitor student progress and to evaluate the effectiveness of the instructional program. These assessments include: end-of-unit tests, classroom observation, report card grades, and standardized state assessments.

ADEQUATE YEARLY PROGRESS

The Federal No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB) requires that all students perform at or above the proficient level on the state's standards-based assessment by the year 2014. Meeting Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) milestones helps determine whether students are reaching proficiency level targets set by NCLB. AYP requires annual evaluation and reporting of the academic progress of all students and defined student subgroups.

Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) Results Reported by Indicator and Compared to District Performance 2008-09

Did the school and district meet or exceed 2009 AYP performance criteria in each of the areas listed below?

AYP Indicator	TPJHS	MUSD
Overall School Results	No	No
Participation Rate
English-Language Arts	Yes	Yes
Math	Yes	Yes
Percent Proficient
English-Language Arts	No	No
Math	No	No
Academic Performance Index	Yes	Yes
Graduation Rate	N/A	Yes

For the 2008-09 AYP cycle, elementary and middle schools must achieve a 46% or higher proficiency rate in English/Language Arts and 47.5% or higher proficiency rate in math on the California Standards Test (CST). Additional criteria contributing to whether or not a school demonstrates AYP include achieving a 95% or above participation rate on the CST and obtaining an API growth score of 650 or higher or increasing the API growth by one point.

The AYP table in this report illustrates the school's progress in meeting 2008-09 AYP target rates. More information on AYP can be found on the California Department of Education's (CDE) website www.cde.ca.gov/nclb/ and the U.S. Department of Education's website www.ed.gov/nclb/accountability/.

CALIFORNIA ENGLISH LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT TEST

State law requires schools to give the California English Language Development Test (CELDT) to students in grades K-12 whose home language is not English. The test identifies the student's proficiency level of understanding of the English language, monitors their progress in learning English if placed in the English Learner program, and helps determine if they have achieved proficiency in the English language.

STANDARDIZED STATE ASSESSMENTS

Students at Twentynine Palms Junior High School participate in California's STAR examination each year. The Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) Program consists of several key components, including the California Standards Tests (CSTs); the California Modified Assessment (CMA), and the California Alternate Performance Assessment (CAPA). The CSTs show how well students are doing in relation to the state content standards. The CSTs include English-language arts (ELA) and mathematics in grades two through eleven; science in grades five, eight, and nine through eleven; and history-social science in grades eight, and ten through eleven.

Student scores are reported as performance levels. Detailed information regarding the STAR Program results for each grade and performance level, including the percent of students not tested, can be found on the CDE Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) Results web site at <http://star.cde.ca.gov>.

PHYSICAL FITNESS

In the spring of each year, Twentynine Palms Junior High School is required by the state to administer a physical fitness test to all students in the seventh grade. The physical fitness test measures each student's ability to complete six fitness tasks in six major areas. Students that either meet or exceed the standards in all six fitness areas are considered to be physically fit or in the "healthy fitness zone." Comparative district and state results can be found at the CDE's website <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/pf/>.

NATIONAL ASSESSMENT OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS (NAEP)

The National Assessment of Educational Progress is a nationally representative assessment of what America's students know and can do in various subject areas. Assessments are conducted periodically in mathematics, reading, science, writing, the arts, civics, economics, geography, and U.S. history. Student scores for reading and mathematics are reported as performance levels (i.e., basic, proficient, and advanced) and the participation of students with disabilities (SD) and English language learners (ELL) is reported based on three levels (identified, excluded, and assessed).

In the adjacent table, only a sample group of California's schools and districts participate in the NAEP testing cycle. Therefore, students in any particular school or district may not be included in these results. The NAEP reflects state test results and is not reflective of either Morongo Unified School District or Twentynine Palms Junior High School. Detailed information regarding the NAEP results for each grade, performance level, and participation rate can be found on the National Assessment of Educational Progress Web page at <http://nces.ed.gov/nationsreportcard/>.

Note: Comparisons of student performance on the NAEP and student performance on the Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) Program assessments cannot be made without an understanding of the key differences between the two assessment programs. Additionally, the NAEP only provides state test results for grades four and eight. The California Standards Tests (CSTs) are based on a different set of standards than the NAEP assessments. Information on the differences between NAEP and CST can be found on the CDE National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/nr/>.

ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE INDEX

The state Academic Performance Index (API) was launched by the California Department of Education in 1999 to measure the performance and progress of schools based on STAR and CAHSEE testing results. (Note: CAHSEE is the California High School Exit Exam administered to students in grades 10-12 as part of the state's graduation requirements.) The API is used to develop annual schoolwide performance growth targets for future academic improvement.

The API measures academic performance and growth of California's schools based on a numeric scale ranging from a low 200 to a high 1000. Academic growth is measured by subtracting the base year API from the growth API. API growth scores are based upon the results of state standardized tests. Schools that do not meet or exceed their growth targets and are ranked in the bottom half of the statewide distribution may qualify for intervention program funding. Each annual API reporting cycle includes two reports: a base report, which is released after the first of the calendar year, and a growth report, which is released after school starts in the fall. These reports are based on APIs calculated in exactly the same fashion with the same indicators but using test results from two different years.

The API table in this report highlights Twentynine Palms Junior High's progress over the past three years. To maintain confidentiality, results are reported for numerically significant subgroups only. Numerically significant subgroups are comprised of (1) at least 100 students with valid test scores or (2) at least 50 valid scores comprising at least 15% of the valid test scores.

The No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act is part of the Federal Title I funding program designed to support additional staffing and programs to meet the needs of low-income, low achieving students, and other designated students with special needs. Schools may apply, based upon their student demographics, for one of two types of Title I funding: Title I Schoolwide or Title I Targeted Assistance. Title I Schoolwide schools use federal funds for schoolwide improvement of student achievement. Title I Targeted Assistance schools use federal funds to help those students who meet specific program criteria.

In 2008-09, Twentynine Palms Junior High School received Schoolwide Title I funding and, therefore, is required to comply with restrictive program testing and reporting activities, achieve specific levels of student proficiency, and monitor school progress towards meeting established goals. California AYP calculations determine whether a Title I school has met performance goals. Schools not meeting AYP criteria enter Program Improvement, a monitoring system and curriculum enhancement program designed to help schools increase student proficiency levels. More information about Title I and Program Improvement can be located on the CDE's website <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ay/>.

students arrive on campus each morning, teachers and administrators are assigned to designated areas of the campus to monitor activities. During the lunch period, campus supervisors, counselors, the principal and assistant principal share supervision of students in the cafeteria and common gathering areas. In the afternoon when students are released for the day, campus supervisors, teachers, the principal, and assistant principal are responsible for supervision of students at exit areas to ensure a safe and orderly departure. All staff assigned to supervision duty carry hand-held radios to quickly facilitate routine and emergency communications.

Many individuals visit the campus as volunteers or to participate in school events. To maintain a safe and secure environment, all parents and visitors are required to check in at the school office upon arrival, obtain and wear a visitor's badge, and then return to the school office upon departure. A color-coded badge system is used to quickly identify a visitor's level of clearance and length of stay while on campus.

SCHOOL INSPECTIONS

Twentynine Palms Junior High School works closely with the Maintenance & Operations Department (M&O) for larger projects, routine facilities maintenance projects, and school inspections. The most recent facilities inspection at Twentynine Palms Junior High School took place on November 10, 2009. Schools are required by state law to report the condition of their facilities; the School Inspection table illustrated below in this report identifies the state-required inspection areas and discloses the operational status in each of those areas. During the 2008-09 school year, 100% of student restrooms were fully operational and available for student use at all times.

FACILITIES MAINTENANCE

School custodial staff and the district's maintenance department work together to ensure classrooms and campus grounds are well-maintained and kept safe and functioning for students, staff, and visitors. Maintenance and Operations (M&O) employs an electronic work order system enabling school staff to communicate unscheduled maintenance needs, urgent repairs, or special projects. Teachers and staff submit requests for unscheduled maintenance and special projects to the senior custodian; the senior custodian then evaluates each request and either assigns the project to site custodians or submits a work order to M&O for resolution. Most of Twentynine Palms Junior High School's repairs and maintenance projects are performed by the district's highly qualified, professional trade specialists or third party vendors, depending upon the scope of the project. Emergency situations are immediately called in to M&O and resolved either by the school's custodial staff or district maintenance staff, based upon the nature of the situation.

One full-time senior custodian, one part-time evening custodian, and one full-time evening custodian are assigned to Twentynine Palms Junior High School and work closely with the principal for routine maintenance, daily custodial duties, and special events. The principal and senior custodian communicate as needed to discuss campus cleaning needs and safety concerns. Every morning before school begins, the senior custodian and campus supervisors inspect campus facilities for safety hazards, graffiti, and other conditions that require removal prior to students and staff entering school grounds. The day custodians are responsible for cafeteria setup/cleanup, school activity setups, minor maintenance, outside grounds areas cleaning, sweeping sidewalks, security checks, and keeping restrooms clean and stocked. Restrooms are monitored and checked by the custodian and campus supervisors every 30 minutes as a proactive measure in eliminating vandalism and keeping facilities safe, sanitary, and stocked. The evening custodians are responsible for general cleaning of classrooms (including sanitizing desktops), restrooms, kitchen, and library. When students are on winter and summer break, custodians perform a thorough, detailed cleaning throughout the campus.

Custodians follow a rigid set of cleaning standards approved by the Morongo Unified School District. Each custodian receives both classroom and on-the-job training from the district's Director of Maintenance & Operations and the district's Custodial Supervisor. Senior custodians are responsible for monitoring school cleaning procedures and practices to ensure students are provided a clean, orderly, and safe learning environment every day.

DEFERRED MAINTENANCE

Morongo Unified School District participates in the State School Deferred Maintenance Program which provides dollar-for-dollar matching funds to assist school districts with major repairs

BOND FUNDED PROJECTS

Morongo Unified School District is receiving approximately $50 million of revenue through the Measure "O" Series A School Bond which was passed by voters in November 2005 as a component of Proposition 39. Bond measure funded projects at Twentynine Palms Junior High School are scheduled to take place during the 2009-10 school year and will include:

- Replacement of current door security lock systems with new and improved hardware

SUPERVISION & SAFETY

All staff share in the supervision of students throughout the school day. All students are required to wear an ID card attached to a lanyard. As

SCHOOL SITE SAFETY PLAN

The Comprehensive School Site Safety Plan was developed for Twentynine Palms Junior High School in collaboration with local municipal agencies and the district office to fulfill Senate Bill 187 requirements. Components of this plan include child abuse reporting procedures, teacher notification of dangerous pupil procedures, disaster response procedures, procedures for safe arrival and departure from school, sexual harassment policy, and dress code policy. The school's most current school safety plan was reviewed, updated, and shared with school staff in May 2009.

For the 2009-10 school year, the district has budgeted $1,335,000 for the deferred maintenance program. This represents 1.7% of the Morongo Unified School District's 2009-10 general fund budget.

CLASSROOM ENVIRONMENT

DISCIPLINE & CLIMATE FOR LEARNING

Twentynine Palms Junior High School takes a proactive approach to minimizing classroom disruptions and maintaining a safe learning environment. Behavior management practices are developed in accordance with the school's discipline/intervention matrix for seventh and eighth grade students. Falcon Pride Rules apply to all students and are designed to maintain high standards of conduct.

School rules, Falcon Pride rules, district policies, academic guidelines, and behavior expectations are clearly outlined in the student handbook (which is provided in paper copy and available on the school web site). At the beginning of the school year, school rules and policies are shared with students in home-room discussions led by the teacher. School and classroom rules are posted in each classroom and on the school's web site. Teachers have developed individual classroom management plans and behavior incentive plans in alignment with district and schoolwide policies. Students are reminded of behavior and academic expectations throughout the year in daily announcements or success assemblies. As needed, teachers and school administrators address unacceptable trends in behavior and remind students to conduct themselves in a safe and responsible manner.

Progressive discipline begins in the classroom when students are disruptive or demonstrating poor citizenship. The behavior improvement process involves the student, teacher, and parent. Parents and teachers work together to resolve student behavior concerns before they escalate to more severe consequences such as suspension or expulsion. Students continuing to have difficulty with their behavior are referred to the counselor or assistant principal. Administrators take into consideration past behavior trends when handing out consequences. Parents are formally notified in writing of every referral or incident pertaining to their child. Misbehavior is not tolerated and is dealt with firmly, consistently, and fairly to the extent necessary to ensure a safe and positive learning environment in the classroom and on campus.

Twentynine Palms Junior High works in partnership with the San Bernardino County Sheriff to deploy Operation CleanSWEEP on campus. School staff have been trained and given the authority to issue citations to students for unlawful conduct. Students receiving citations are required to appear in juvenile court for assignment of fines or community service work.

The student handbook outlines the school's anti-bullying policies and reinforces the school's zero tolerance policy. Teachers and staff believe that students have the right to a learning environment free of verbal and physical harm. Parents and students are encouraged to contact school personnel with their concerns about bullying, taunting, and victimizing of students. Disciplinary measures are carried out in alignment with school policies and the discipline matrix.

INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

All textbooks used in the core curriculum throughout Morongo Unified School District are aligned to the California Content Standards and Frameworks. Instructional materials for grades K-8 are selected from the state's most recent list of standards-based materials and adopted by the State Board of Education. SCHOOL LEADERSHIP

Leadership is a responsibility shared among the school administration, school staff, and parents. Principal Jolie Kelley is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the school and overall instructional program. The principal and assistant principal share many responsibilities associated with running an effective middle school. Assistant Principal Jennifer Sands takes a lead role in managing student discipline and safety.

At the beginning of the 2009-10 school year, Mrs. Kelley entered her fourth term as principal of Twentynine Palms Junior High School. She has been in the educational field and serving the Morongo Unified School District for 19 years. Mrs. Kelley has previously held positions as a classroom teacher, assistant principal, and an academic team coach. Professional certifications include:

Team members serve as a liaison between the school and community and are responsible for approving the annual budget, school site plan, and school safety plan.

SPECIALIZED INSTRUCTION

All curriculum and instruction is aligned to the California State Content Standards and Frameworks approved by the State Board of Education. Every student receives a rigorous, well-balanced standards-aligned curriculum. Twentynine Palms Junior High School structures its educational program so that all students receive instruction appropriate to their learning level. To ensure the success of every student, teachers use a variety of instructional techniques using research-based instructional materials and strategies.

SPECIAL EDUCATION

All special education students are mainstreamed into the general education classroom based upon their IEP (Individualized Education Program) and provided instruction in the least restrictive environment. Special education services include placement in resource specialist program classes, special day class, regular education accommodations, speech and language services, audiology services, physical and occupational therapy, social work services, orientation and mobility services, and psychological counseling.

Twenty-nine Palms Junior High School supports one full-day, self-contained special day class which is staffed by one special education teacher and three instructional aides. One special education teacher, two resource specialist teachers, two morning aides, and two afternoon instructional aides provide support in the general education classroom. Special education staff work closely with general education teachers following a "blended model" to ensure instruction is effectively supporting current lessons as well as each student's individual needs. Each student's IEP is reviewed and updated annually by the school's IEP teams. The IEP ensures students with disabilities have equal access to core curriculum and educational opportunities and is designed to coordinate specially-designed instruction based upon individual academic, social, and/or behavioral needs.

ENGLISH LEARNERS

Students identified as English Learners (EL) through the CELDT exam and home language survey are placed in a classroom with a teacher who has been certified to teach English learners. Teachers use differentiated instruction and SDAIE (Specially-Designed Academic Instruction In English) strategies to maximize student understanding of lesson content and concepts. English learners receive a 30 minutes of instruction following the HighPoint curriculum as their core language arts course, supplemented with one to three periods of instruction using the LANGUAGE! curriculum. Language development instruction generally focuses on developing listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills. As students increase fluency, progress is measured through classroom performance and CELDT results. Instruction is subsequently adjusted to meet the current learning needs of each student.

AT RISK INTERVENTIONS

Twenty-nine Palms Junior High School offers unique programs to support students not meeting grade level proficiency standards. Intervention and remediation programs are provided during school hours as part of the core curriculum and after school. Analyzing and identifying students who need additional academic assistance is a top priority among school administration, teachers, and special education staff. Teachers use student assessment results, report card grades, and classroom performance on end-of-unit tests to evaluate student progress and identify students performing below grade level proficiency standards in reading, language arts, and math. Identified students are then placed in a supplemental program that fits their academic needs and learning levels. Intervention strategies include:

- LASER (Library After School Educational Resources): one day a week the library is open until 3:15 p.m. for students seeking additional support to improve academic success. Students have access to teacher or peer tutoring services, computers for research, and all other library resources.

- After-school Tutoring: certificated staff are available two days a week for 60 minutes after school for students who need additional assistance. Bus transportation is available.

- Intensive Language Arts: students reading two or more years below current grade level are placed in either two or three periods of LANGUAGE! to fulfill their language arts coursework. Instruction is designed to improve basic reading fluency and comprehension skills.

- Strategic Language Arts: students reading one and half grade levels below state proficiency standards are placed in an "extra support" language arts class as a supplement to their regular language arts course. Instruction is designed to identify and strengthen gaps in the learning process.

- Benchmark Language Arts: students reading at or above grade level are placed in an Advanced English course to fulfill general education language arts requirements. Instruction is designed to challenge students abilities and skills.

- Content Area Coaches: two part-time content area coaches - one math specialist and one language arts specialist - provide training and teacher support in an effort to improve student performance in respective subject areas.

- ZAP (Zeros Aren't Permitted): a schoolwide zero-tolerance policy for missing assignments. Students are provided the opportunity to complete work with specified time frames to avoid mandatory placement in lunchtime detention. Students continuing to struggle with assignments are referred to the Student Study Team to identify and resolve barriers interfering with the completion of coursework.
